

HERITAGE EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTRE

Parent Update Meeting

Heritage Early Childhood Centre recognises that teaching and learning have continued on the Land on which our centre stands for many thousands of years, and we are honoured to continue to live and learn on this Land. We pay our respects to Elders past, present, and emerging and acknowledge The Traditional Custodians, The Ngunawal, Ngunnawal, and Ngambri Peoples of the Canberra Region.

Director's Update

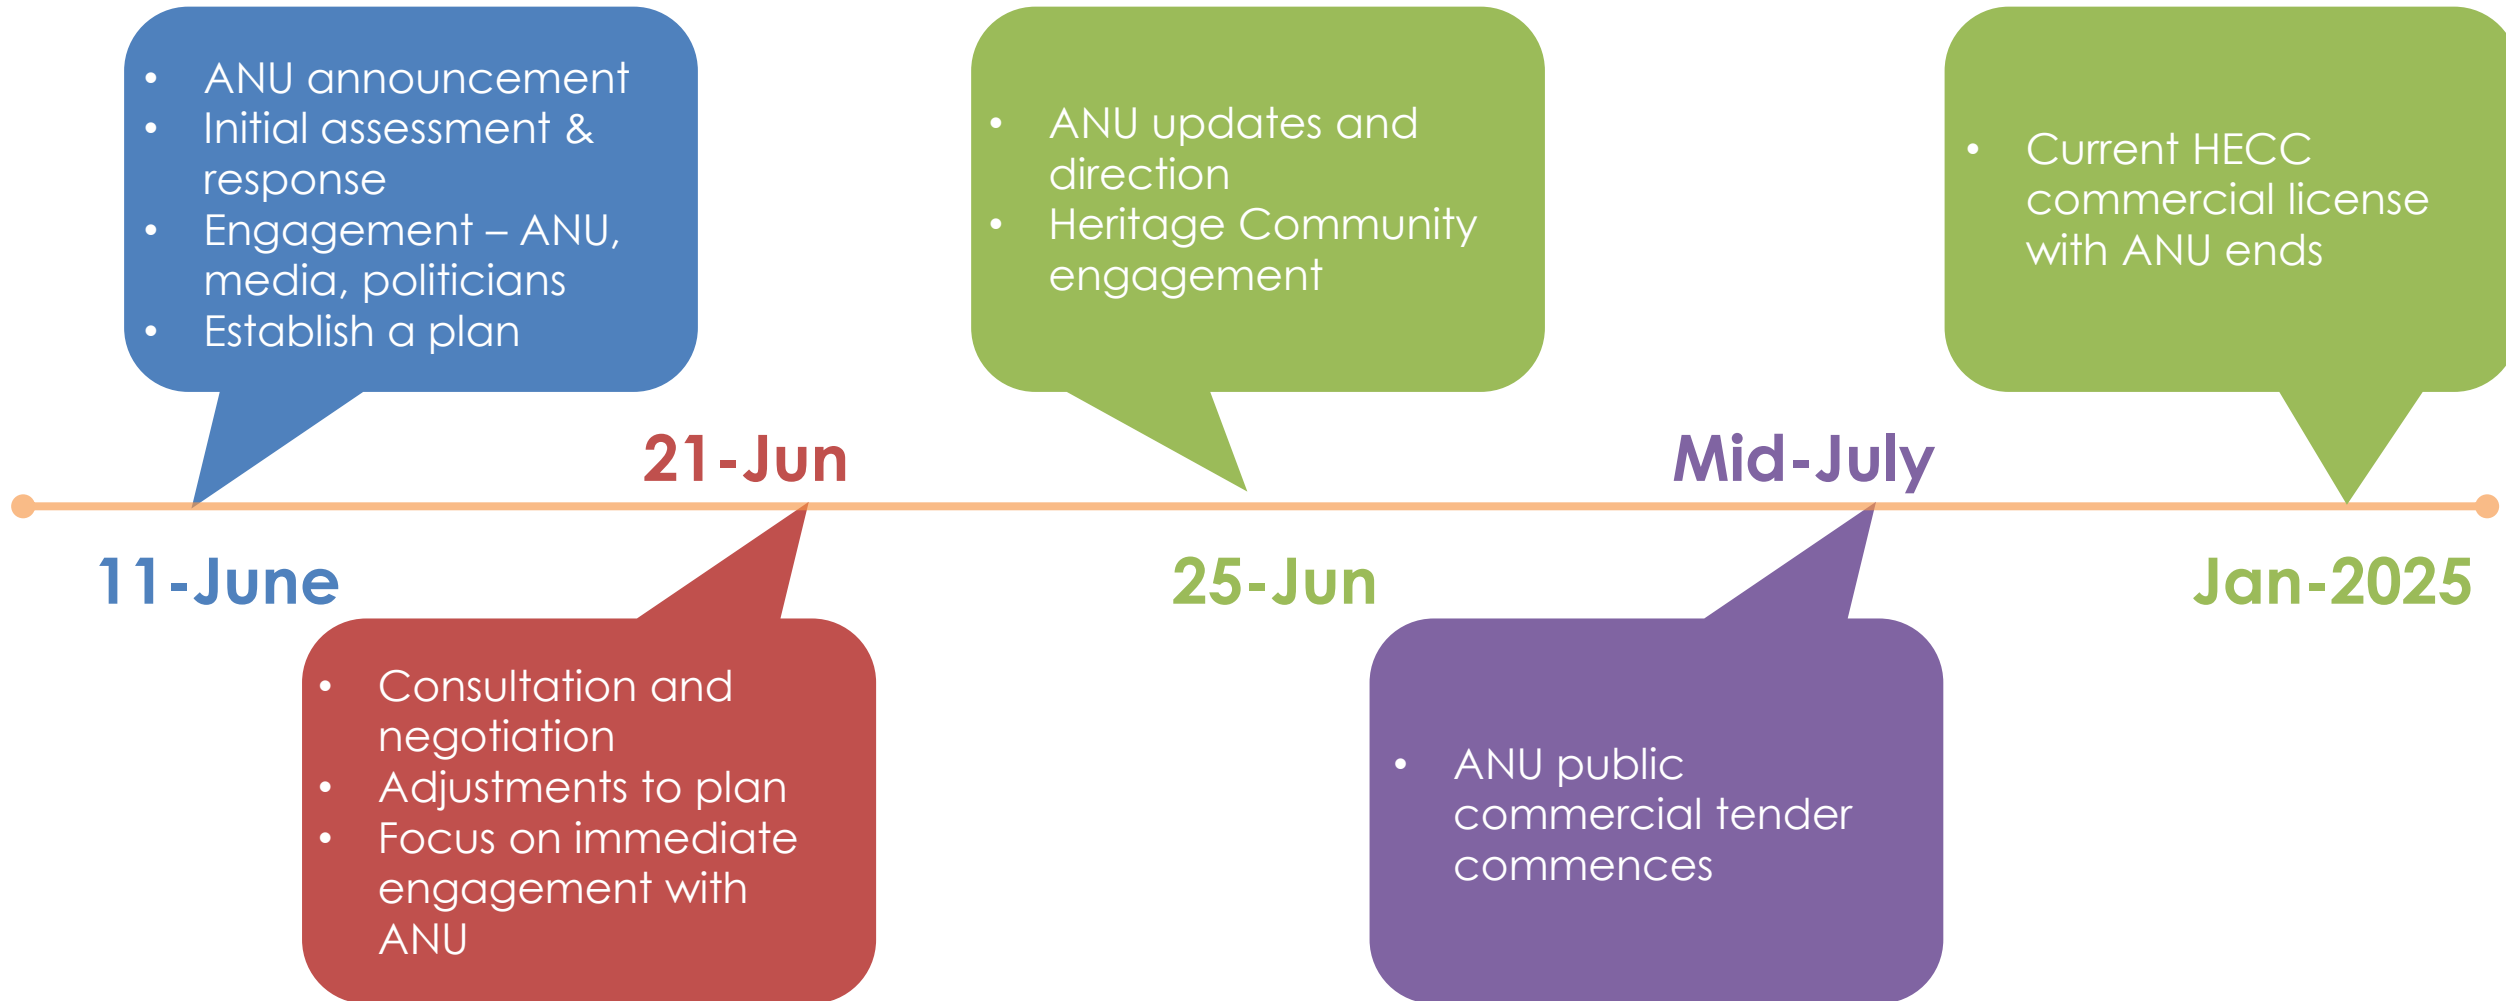

- Thank you for support
- Strong beliefs
- Strength and value of our community
- Investment in early years learning
- Respect for nature and environment
- Long term approach to respect and upholding our values

What we're fighting for

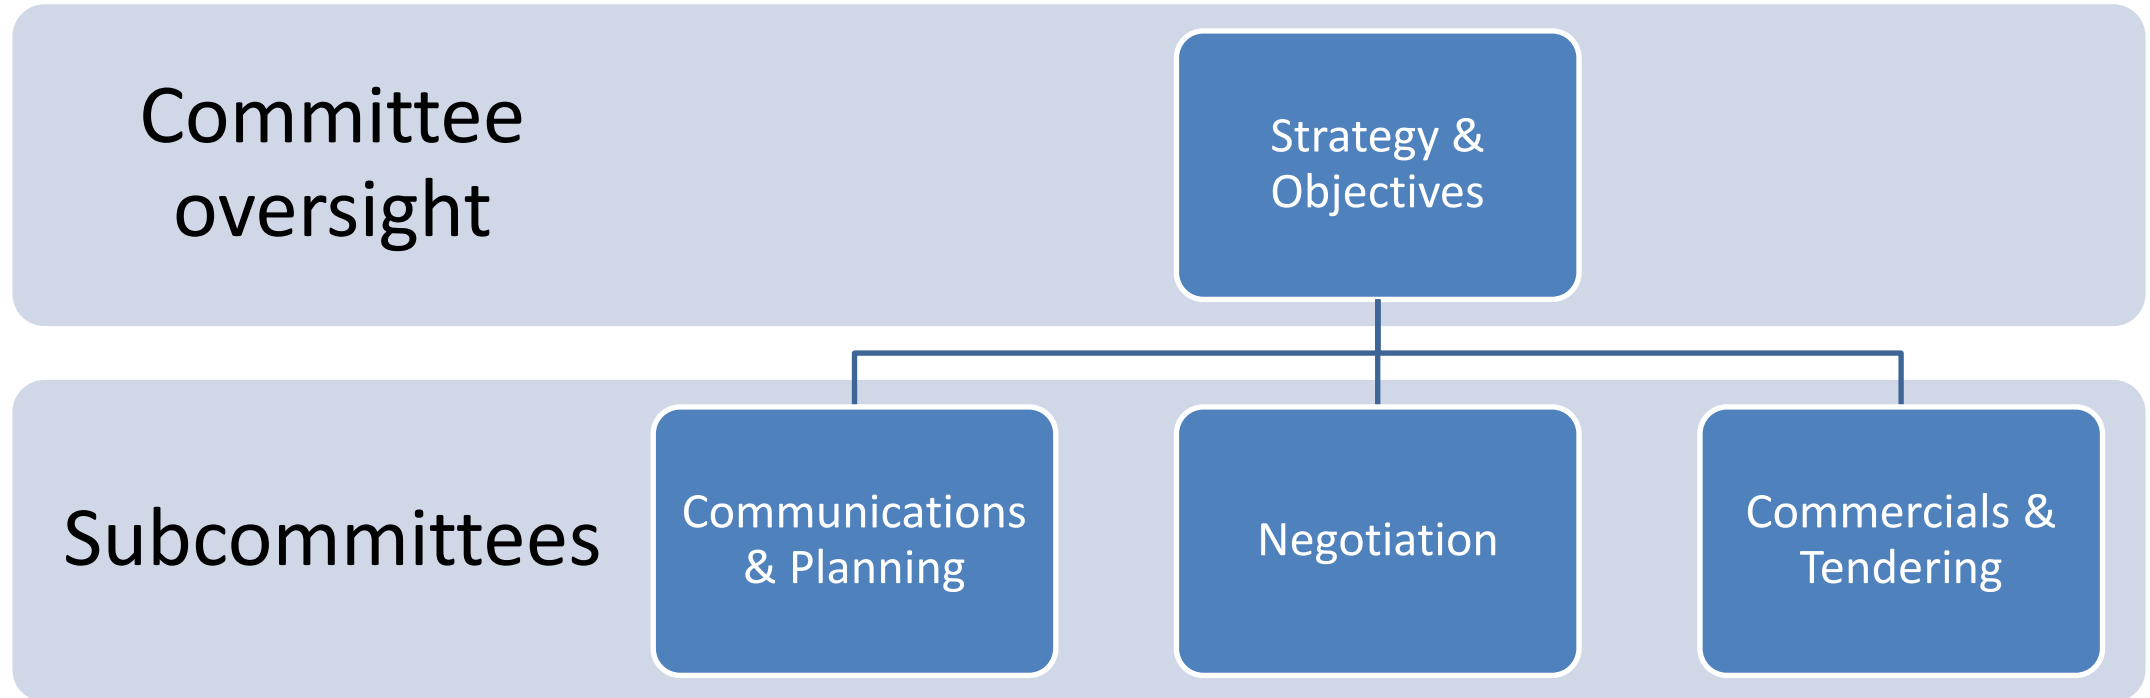

- Values
- Philosophy
- Commitment to learning
- High quality early childhood education and care
- Educators – quality, working conditions, and retention
- Community – Heritage and ANU
- Community of learners, not for profit
- Continuity of services – childcare, employment, community

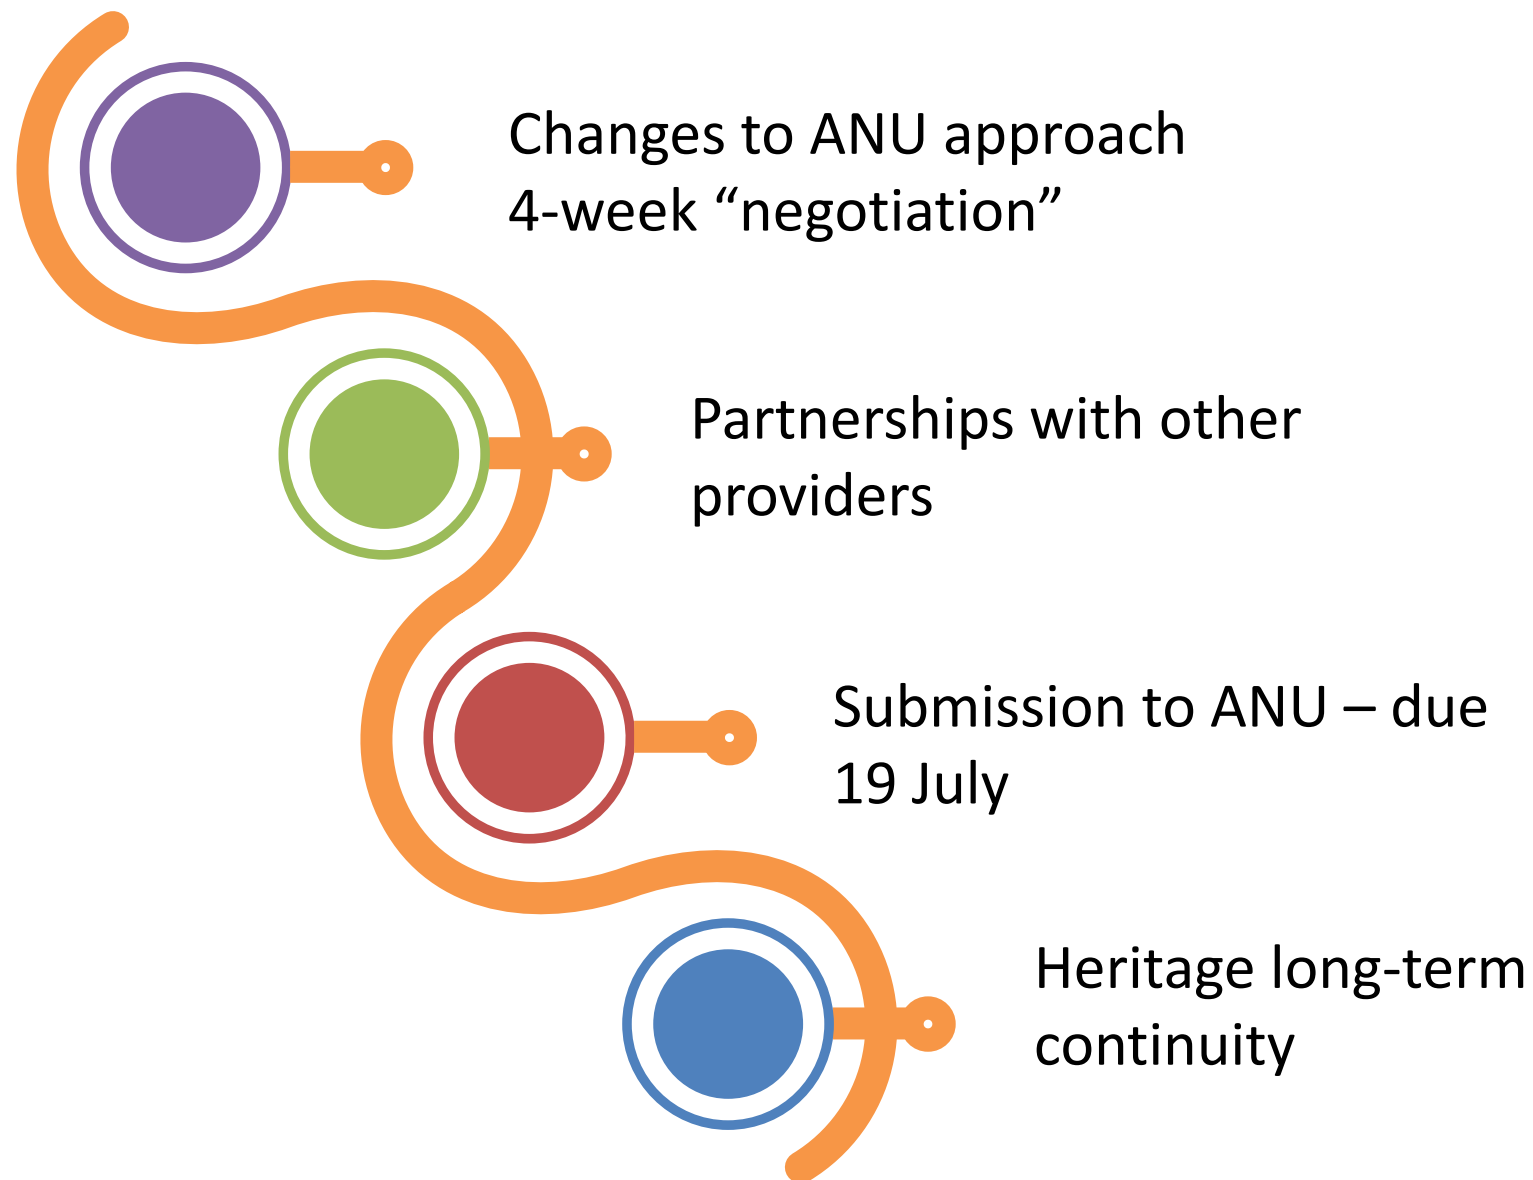

Timeline of events

What the plan is

Where we are up to

The ask of parents

- Community input
- Lobbying
- Involvement in subcommittees
 - Communications & Planning
 - Negotiation
 - Commercials & Tendering

Heritage Parent and Alumni
Advocacy Groups

Identified Skills

- Communications & Planning
 - Lobbying, advocacy, corporate communications
- Negotiation
 - Strategy, consultants, negotiation
- Commercials & Tendering
 - Scoping, rapid research, tender writing, project management, procurement

Heritage Parent and Alumni
Advocacy Groups

Next Steps

- Let us know how you can help (QR code)
- Continue open discussion
- Transparent communications – weekly at minimum

Heritage Parent and Alumni
Advocacy Groups

Questions

Note:

- We have shared much of what we know.
- Multiple options exist for continuity.
- Heritage is in a healthy position – community, finances, staff.

Heritage Early Childhood Centre

"Where every child is an individual"

Heritage Parent and Alumni
Advocacy Groups

